By using this website, you agree to the terms of this disclaimer in full. If you do not agree with any part of this disclaimer, you must not use this website or rely on any of its content.

No Professional Advice

The content on this website—including articles, tutorials, amateur radio study guides, quizzes, and practical tips—does not constitute professional engineering, legal, or regulatory advice. While I strive to ensure the accuracy and currency of the information provided (such as Foundation, Standard, and Advanced licence theory regulations), radio regulations and technical standards can change. Always verify official rules with your local telecommunications authority before sitting exams or operating radio equipment.

Technical & Electronics Risk (Use at Your Own Risk)

Amateur radio and basic electronics projects often involve hands-on work with tools, high voltages, soldering equipment, radio frequency (RF) exposure, and sensitive electronic components.

- All technical projects, schematics, and guides are provided "as is" with no guarantees of completeness, accuracy, or safety.
- You assume full responsibility for your own physical safety and the safety of your equipment.
- Jules' Workshop is not liable for any personal injury, property damage, equipment failure, or financial loss resulting from your attempt to replicate projects or follow technical advice found on this website.

External Links Disclaimer

From time to time, this website may include links to external websites, amateur radio resources, or community events. These links are provided for your convenience to provide further information. I have no control over the nature, content, and availability of those external sites, and the inclusion of any links does not necessarily imply a recommendation or endorse the views expressed within them.

2. Physical Activity & Health Warning (Tai Chi)

The information and instructions relating to Werribee Tai Chi on this website are intended for general fitness and educational purposes. Tai Chi involves physical movement and exertion.

- You should consult a qualified healthcare professional or doctor before starting any new physical activity or exercise regime, especially if you have pre-existing health conditions or injuries.
- By participating in any exercises or movements described on this site, you do so entirely at your own risk.
- Jules' Workshop assumes no responsibility or liability for any injuries, health complications, or adverse effects resulting from the practice of Tai Chi or exercises detailed here.

Limitation of Liability

In no event will Jules' Workshop be liable for any loss or damage including without limitation, indirect or consequential loss or damage, or any loss or damage whatsoever arising from loss of data or profits arising out of, or in connection with, the use of this website.
